THE COURT.

We have no disposition to beslave Judge Wood with fulsome praise, as anch to him would be exceedingly distasteful, and to us would be out of our line, but as we have felt i deep interest in his success and it knowing the feelings of the bar toward him, we have made inquiry o several of our attorneys and they al concur in saying that thus far he has more than met the just expectations Republican lawyers are just as well pleased as the Democrate are, and they may be, as Judge Wood is not, nor will be be, a political sion was occupied by Dr. Jas. You saw it bad enough in all conscience. It was as nothing in comparison with the present, and for the future it is far darker than a funeral pall. I do not imagine that there is a town on God's earth, of its size, 'n which there is so much of general despondency, so much of the social indifference of despair, so much of gaunt want and destitution as here in New Orleans. And there is nothing in the immediate future but that It has arrived at that pass that the main desideratum with all seems to be to guard as far as possible Col. J. W. Jepr. Auctioneer mayber
